Chapter I: Opening Excerpt

He was an old man who fished alone in a skiff in the Gulf Stream and he had gone eighty-four days now without taking a fish. In the first forty days a boy had been with him. But after forty days without a fish the boy's parents had told him that the old man was now definitely and finally salao, which is the worst form of unlucky.

Discussion Questions & Reader's Guide

1. How does the setting and atmosphere establish the psychological tone of the narrative?
2. What central conflicts drive the primary protagonist, and how are these resolved?
3. In what ways do the thematic motifs mirror contemporary human struggles today?
4. Which literary techniques (symbolism, dialogue, pacing) contribute most powerfully to the climax?
